

Foundations of Modern Political Philosophy Spring 2017

Students were provided the following instruction: “5” means excellent and “1” means poor, please choose the number you feel best describes your teacher in the categories below. Scan of full evaluation is available upon request.

Selected Student Comments

“Though he may be considered a tough grader, he always provided extensive comments on all graded work, detailing the logical gaps and fallacies in your reasoning. And he always made himself accessible/readily available to go over papers and other concerns that you had. Overall, I truly developed a love and appreciation for philosophy while taking this course, and I know that Alex had a lot to do with that.”

“[Alex] has carefully struck the balance of boiling down complicated philosophy such that it’s approachable without doing the ‘understanding’ for us – he helps us reach the conclusions we need by fostering the necessary conversations. His willingness to go beyond what the course demands (I alone have met with him 5 times about various essays) and the impact thereof cannot be understated.”

“[Alex] was receptive to all comments, questions and concerns. I felt safe to talk about my own ideas without being judged thanks to him. He went above and beyond, making sections engaging for everyone. He provided us with extra information on fallacies, which he did not have to. (...) He was always smiling, creating a safe, inviting environment.”