

Philosophy of Religion Fall 2015

Students were provided the following instruction: “5” means excellent and “1” means poor, please choose the number you feel best describes your teacher in the categories below. Scan of full evaluation is available upon request.

Selected Student Comments

“Alex was without a doubt the most competent TA I’ve had in the philosophy department at Hopkins (and I’ve had a few!) both in terms of knowledge of the material, preparation for class and techniques of teaching/running section.”

“Alex was honest, he told me that my first paper was basically garbage which motivated me to do better on the second one. Yes. I feel more developed as a student after working with Alex. No, don’t change anything.”

“I also appreciated the variety of activities we did, instead of defaulting to the same activity every week.”

“He very easily can be said to have been the primary reason for my enjoyment and success in this course.”

“Even though I did not enjoy Professor Gross or the course, I did enjoy Alex’s interpretations and his enthusiasm during section. I would like him as my TA again in another philosophy course.”